

STATUTE OF THE BLACK SEA UNIVERSITIES NETWORK

Sharing the goals of the Organization of the Black Sea Economic Cooperation (hereinafter BSEC) and of the Parliamentary Assembly of Black Sea Economic Cooperation (hereinafter PABSEC) which aim to transform the Black Sea region, through mutual cooperation, into a region of peace, freedom, stability and prosperity,

Mindful of the leading role that universities play in the economic, political and cultural life of their nations and wishing to enhance their scientific and educational role within the institutional structure of the BSEC,

Convinced that strengthening the cooperation among the Black Sea Universities may bring a major contribution to the achievement of the goals of the BSEC,

Reaffirming our commitment to the provisions of the Memorandum of the First Conference of the University Rectors and acting in pursuance of the Memorandum,

Taking into consideration the relevant provisions of the national legislation of the BSEC Member States concerning universities,

We have decided to found the Black Sea University Network, hereinafter referred to as the BSUN.

Purpose and Objectives of the BSUN

ART. 1 The BSUN was founded for the purpose of developing educational, scientific, and cultural cooperation and exchanges among the Universities of the BSEC Member States and other institutions with similar concern.

ART. 2 To fulfill the above mentioned purpose, the BSUN shall:

- promote a systematic exchange of information and experience among the Member Universities;
- promote harmonization, comparable conditions and compatibility of systems of university management;
- encourage common projects in the common fields of interest of Member Universities (increasing Internet access capability, introduction of modern computer-supported educational technologies, with special emphasis on the multimedia approach, updating the processing capabilities of BSUN for creation of an effective Research Excellence Network, retraining the BSUN staff according to the newest IT educational approaches); educational and cultural facilities;
- organize undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate courses, conferences, meetings, exhibitions, seminars and workshops, as well as other events;

- support and encourage scientific and educational cooperation among universities, research institutions, NGOs, investor and economic institutions of the Member Universities;
- pay particular attention to facilitating multilateral cooperation projects elaborated within the framework of the BSUN and BSEC;
- encourage cooperation and play the role of a bridge between the Ministries of Education, Science and Technology, Academies of Sciences and other institutions and establishments of the Member Universities and Countries;
- encourage twin-University relationship between the Member Universities;
- develop human contacts and cultural cooperation by organizing meetings, youth and art festivals, sports competitions and other events;
- work together for a sustainable development of the Black Sea Region and to protect the environment, as well as historical and cultural monuments;
- work in close collaboration with BSEC and other bodies of the Black Sea cooperation process - PABSEC, BSEC Business Council, Black Sea Trade and Development Bank, International Black Sea Club – and maintain contacts with other international and regional associations of local authorities.

Membership of the BSUN

ART. 3 The BSUN is intended to function under the framework of the Academic Cooperation in the Black Sea Region (art. 23 BSEC Charter). In this respect, all institutions sharing this aim are invited to join the BSUN.

The membership in BSUN is structured in the following groups:

- a) members
- b) associated members
- c) affiliated members

The membership for the position a), b), and c) is renewed on yearly base.

The interested Universities and other organizations should apply to the BSUN National Secretariat in their country or to the International Permanent Secretariat filling an application form and providing relevant information and documents.

The Executive Board appoints a Committee to analyze the applications and formulate a proposal to be approved in one of Executive Board ordinary meetings.

After the approval of the Executive Board the applicants should pay the membership fee to the International Permanent Secretariat and receive a Membership Certificate valid for one year.

ART. 4 BSUN members are accredited universities from one of the BSEC member countries according to the regulations of that country and recognized by the Ministry of Education or other official institutions with regulatory attributions in the field of Higher Education.
